

Anna Phillips

Anna is a qualified teacher of English as a Foreign Language who can offer General English and Young Learners homestay courses.

Qualifications: MA in TEFL; RSA DipTEFL.

Background: Anna has taught English as a foreign language for over 40 years and is a very successful published author on the subject of EFL. She has taught both abroad in Oman, where she lived for 13 years, and in the UK.

Location: Anna lives in a luxurious four bedroom house in Bournemouth. There are many places to visit, including Winchester, Salisbury and Stonehenge. The Jurassic Coast is very beautiful and there are many other lovely beaches, the New Forest National Park, Christchurch Priory, and various historic sites and museums.

Transport: Bournemouth (Zone 1), Southampton (Zone 3), Bristol (Zone 4), London Heathrow (Zone 5), London Gatwick (Zone 5).

Student Accommodation: A very nice double room with Wi-Fi. A private ensuite bathroom is available on request.

Family: Anna lives with her husband, Terry, who is a freelance ELT teacher trainer, writer, consultant and business manager.

Food: The family enjoys making healthy, homecooked meals and are happy to provide for student needs.

Interests: Gardening, cooking, walking, badminton, reading, knitting, Italy and learning Italian, fashion and interior design.

Pets: One elderly dog, a Border Collie. She is not allowed upstairs or onto any of the furniture downstairs.

Bournemouth
United Kingdom

Anna's Home

Teacher

Location

Bournemouth is a town on the south coast of England, with seven miles of award-winning sandy beaches, beautiful parks and gardens and a buzzing nightlife with some of the best eateries along the Dorset coast

Local sights include Brownsea Island, a nature reserve off the coast, the Old Harry rock formations, Bournemouth Pier and Kingston Lacy, a country house with stunning Japanese gardens.

Enjoy beautiful bay walks and breath-taking views from the cliff tops. Discover Hengistbury Head Nature Reserve to the east and the beautiful coastline heading west towards Alum Chine and its tropical gardens.

Colourful beach huts are a very British tradition that originated in Bournemouth in 1908 - you can even visit the world's oldest beach hut!

Find out more at www.bournemouth.co.uk

